LIVING AT UNSW
CONNECT, GROW AND BELONG ON CAMPUS

Living on campus is unlike any other accommodation option. Colleges have a stronger culture of socialising, while apartments have more opportunity for independence. Both are places to grow alongside fellow students, fulfilling your personal and academic potential.

Whichever option you choose, UNSW will become your home and community.

UNSW STUDENT ACCOMMODATION
Lower Ground Floor,
Building B17
Goldstein College,
Gate 5 High Street
UNSW Sydney NSW 2052
+61 2 9385 4346
accommodation@unsw.edu.au
accommodation.unsw.edu.au
CRICOS Provider code: 00098G
Join a college and you’ll continue decades of university history. A strong community and highly social traditions are at the heart of college life, with the support of residential care and academic mentoring.

THE KENSINGTON COLLEGES
Made up of the three residential colleges — Basser, Baxter and Goldstein — you’ll find a strong sense of community, a vivid social life and academic support. FROM $523.65* PER WEEK

FIG TREE HALL
A multi-faith and multicultural college with strong academic support. In respect for a multitude of faiths, Fig Tree Hall is alcohol-free and features both gender-segregated and mixed floors. $576.95* PER WEEK

UNSW HALL
Drawing students from around the world and Australia, this is a place to broaden your understanding of others in a close and active community. Regular events are complemented by academic support. $382.55* PER WEEK

COLOMBO HOUSE
The only college to give you the freedom to cook your own meals, but still be part of college events and social life. You’ll gain independence while being part of a community. $420.10* PER WEEK

INTERNATIONAL HOUSE
A cross-cultural college with a mix of international and domestic students in their senior undergraduate or post-graduate studies. Cultural, social and sporting activities add to the supportive environment. $287.35* PER WEEK

WHAT’S INCLUDED?
All college rooms are single-occupancy. All prices include: furniture, wi-fi, water, electricity and gas. There is a non-refundable application fee of $100. *Prices subject to change.

TAKE A VIRTUAL TOUR
www.accommodation.unsw.edu.au
Apartments are an opportunity to make your own home and household. They cater to students who want more independent living or need specific living arrangements, including families.

BARKER STREET APARTMENTS
Five-bedroom apartments offer a private room with common living spaces. There are also options for families, couples and people needing wheelchair access.

FROM $326.90* PER WEEK

- Studio, 2, 3, 5 bedroom

HIGH STREET APARTMENTS
Located across the road from UNSW at Gate 9, this strikes the perfect balance for families or couples. Preference is generally given to couples and families with children.

FROM $476.90* PER WEEK

- 1, 2 bedroom

MULWARREE APARTMENTS
Located approximately 1.5 kilometres from UNSW, Mulwarree offers a short commute to classes but a reasonable distance for people who want a distinct life at home.

$292.40* PER WEEK

- 5 bedroom

UNIVERSITY TERRACES
Stylish, affordable and modern, the Terraces are a self-sufficient style of living at the heart of UNSW. Find bars, cafés, and a supermarket right at your doorstep.

FROM $417.50* PER WEEK

- Studio, 1 bedroom

WHAT’S INCLUDED?
Apartments are a mix of studio and multi-bedroom apartments with 52-week contracts. All prices include: common area cleaning, wi-fi, water, electricity and gas. There is a non-refundable application fee of $100.

*Prices subject to change.